Location & Directions

The house is situated at the south end of Ballantrae's main street and is accessed by way of drive which is shared with 4 other proprietors. The village is on the Ayrshire coast and has a primary school, doctors surgery & dispensary, village shop & post office, filling station with workshop, pub, bowling green and small harbour. South west Ayrshire is renowned for its scenery and this delightful locality affords easy access to many of the attractions within the district which include: a variety of attractive hill and coastal walks and cycle trails; the National Trusts Culzean Castle and Country Park; Galloway Forest Park; excellent Golf Courses at Girvan, Turnberry; Stranraer and Portpatrick. There are of course the usual field sports and rivers for fishing the most notable of which in the district is the River Stinchar which flows by on the edge Ballantrae.

Girvan has a stunning beach, nursery, primary and secondary schooling; the Quay Zone which is a recently opened leisure facility comprising swimming pool, fully equipped gym and soft play centre; community hospital; independent and multiple retailers; ASDA supermarket; harbour; railway station with connections to Ayr and Glasgow.

Travelling south from Ayr on A77 continue ahead, passing through Girvan. On entering Ballantrae proceed ahead on Main Street through the centre of the village. On the left hand side there is a large house with turret on left hand side, just to side make a sharp left turn onto the road which leads up to Fourways. The house is in the right hand corner.
